**Irish and Celtic Story Telling:

Irish & Celtic Folklore**

Jill Matthews Larson is Capstone Characters LLC located in Omro, WI. Capstone Characters LLC specializes in providing family entertainment to schools, churches, libraries, and kids' events, using her variety of fun and eye-catching puppet characters. In Gaelic, the word seanachai (shan-a-kee) means 'storyteller', and Jill's Irish heritage has been the inspiration for a special presentation she'll be giving at this year's Oshkosh Irish Fest. Please come, sit by the fire, and get swept away to that ancient and mystical place known as Ireland!

Dream Pillows:

Join us for a fun, informative and creative craft session making you own herbal dream pillow sachet. Hear the what, when and why they were a part of Renaissance history, and how they hold the same allure today.

Indentured Servitude Sign-up:

Come find out the truth of what coming to America meant to our Irish and European ancestors. By signing a replica of an original Indentured Servant Contract, you too will come to terms firsthand with the expectations and work that befell men, women and children who signed on for the promise of a better life. This is an interactive family demonstration, parents bring your cameras!

Mike Houlihan author of Hooliganism***

HOOLIGANISM is an anthology of Mike Houlihan's best columns from The Irish American News, with additional material from the Chicago Tribune Magazine, and Chicago Public Radio. This book captures the best stories from one of Irish America's funniest raconteurs. Filled with Irish jokes, anecdotes, and preposterous tales, this book is like enjoying a pint of your favorite stout. If you read the whole thing in one sitting you'll be drunk with laughter.
